

The Caledonian Club of San Francisco is proud to partner with the deYoung Museum in presenting two Friday Nights at the deYoung – Opening of Season 11 (April 17) and Grand Ceilidh (May 29). Both nights will celebrate the deYoung’s special presentation of “Botticelli to Braque - Masterpieces from the National Gallery of Scotland” on display from March 7 to May 31, 2015.

The April 17 Opening of Season 11 in the Wilsey Court will feature a welcome by bagpiper Jeff Campbell, Scottish Country Dancing demonstrations by the Red Thistle Dancers with an opportunity to test your dancing skills and a special “Pubcrawl” appearance by fiddler Michael Mullen and accompanist Kristan Robbie Anderson.

The May 29 Grand Ceilidh in the Wilsey Court will feature performances by the Prince Charles (Caledonian Club of San Francisco) Pipe Band, St. Andrew’s Noble Order of Royal Scots, featuring the Court of Mary Queen of Scots, and Trio of One fiddler Michael Mullen

On both nights, the adjacent Piazzoni Murals Room will feature a full bar with the opportunity to purchase single malt whisky and/or Tennent’s Scottish Ale or Belhaven Wee Heavy beer, a Photo Booth where you can be photographed in special Scottish costumes or a kilt, and live entertainment.

Admission to the above events is free (yes free) and will be from 5:30 pm to 8:30 pm both evenings at the deYoung Museum, 50 Hagiwara Tea Garden Drive, San Francisco, CA 94118. We encourage you to wear appropriate Scottish costume.

These special events do not include admission to the Museum and exhibits, but Museum tickets will be available on both days for the special price of $15.00 (normally $23.00 for Adults).
